Bronwen
even tho you
the craziest
moter mouth i know. your still pretty decent. Have lots of fun with all cuz believe it or not
you two make a cute couple. Stay high!

Jenny Kowalzyk

Bronwen,
This year and last
I will admit, has been different.
I don't think I met anyone as different as you. Maybe the word is screwy. But anyway try and be good.
[Signature]

BROWNEN,
 THE BEST OF LUCK
 TO YOU IN EVERYTHING
 YOU DO. HOPE I LIVE
 TO SEE YOU GRADUATE. WELL STAY COOL AND REMEMBER IF YOU NEED SOMEONE TO TALK TO
 I'LL BE HOME. LOVE YOU VERY MUCH
 MARK '75

BROWNEN:
 The best of luck
 to you in the years to come. It has been nice to know ~~you~~ you these past 4 years and hope
 we still see each other even after we graduate. So keep cool.

"Pattie" '75

Brownen,
 I really talked havent talked to ya alot
 this year I did when I was to talk to ya around
 Anita
 See ya

Brownen,
 To a real good friend that I've known along
 time I hope you
 patch things up
 with all you two
 are made for each other. Good Luck, Simon
 Love
 Billy

Brownen,
 Good luck in the future.
 Hope you have lots of fun with your honey
 take it easy. Goodbye.
 See ya,

STUDENT LIFE

Since the lines were long and slow students talked with old friends and stood in line. Once inside the cafeteria students like Pam Novak, Bill Nicholson, and Ginger Gebka tried to make the line move faster by setting up various stations to stop at.

registration

Even with all the organization the Guidance office was full as usual for at least a couple days. During the first few days students met up with crabby bus drivers, that looked like witches and teachers who treated them like first graders when they were bad.

school begins

HOMECOMING 1974

Another victory for the Panthers. Glenbard North's Marching Panthers, led by Mr. Schmoe, opposite page right, played the Star Spangled Banner, which started the game. Daryl Feltes sought advice from Coach Elmore right while Rob Boehmer opposite page upper right displayed excellent form. Ronnie Dejournett below tried to figure out how Pep Club made the fantastic Homecoming float. Once the game was in progress, Panther fans were caught up in the excitement of the game with the help of balloons, confetti, and cheers. That night, before the social, the Pom Pon girls performed with flashlights lower right.

Elwood Dowd (Roger Uhler) is introducing Mrs. Chauvenet (Laura Gardner) to Harvey, at the right. Middle left, Elwood gives a cab driver (Bob Wagner) a lot of money, which annoys Veta Louise (Karen Pedersen). Lower left, Veta approves the flowers arranged by the maid (Chris Darschewski). Lower right, is Harvey of course, leaning on the lamppost.

ecology and trips to pratt's wayne woods

John Hoshaw and Bob Pegg, Upper right use manure to generate gas for an Ecology project. Above the group takes a break for lunch. Right Laura Gardner laughs fiendishly at some evil doing of hers.

foreign exchange students

This year Glenbard North had six foreign exchange students. Above, Rodolfo Stroer, (Rudy), from Brazil, stayed with the Beal family. Upper right, Marta Roses, from Argentina, stayed with Cindy Guzel. Right, Christina De Silva, from Brazil, stayed with the Beal family. These students worked in the audio visual department, took courses in art, and explored Pratt's Wayne Woods.

Madame Elizabeth (Linda Salazar) and Mr. Gant (Steve Lewis) reminisced over old times right. Below, Laura James (Debbie Azar) gave Mrs. Gant (Lourdes Rodriguez) a letter for Eugene. Mrs. Gant accuses Mrs. Pert (Laura Gardner) of standing in her place at Ben's (Roger Uhler) death bed lower right. At the bottom, old man Gant came home drunk. Helen (Martha Scully) comforted him.

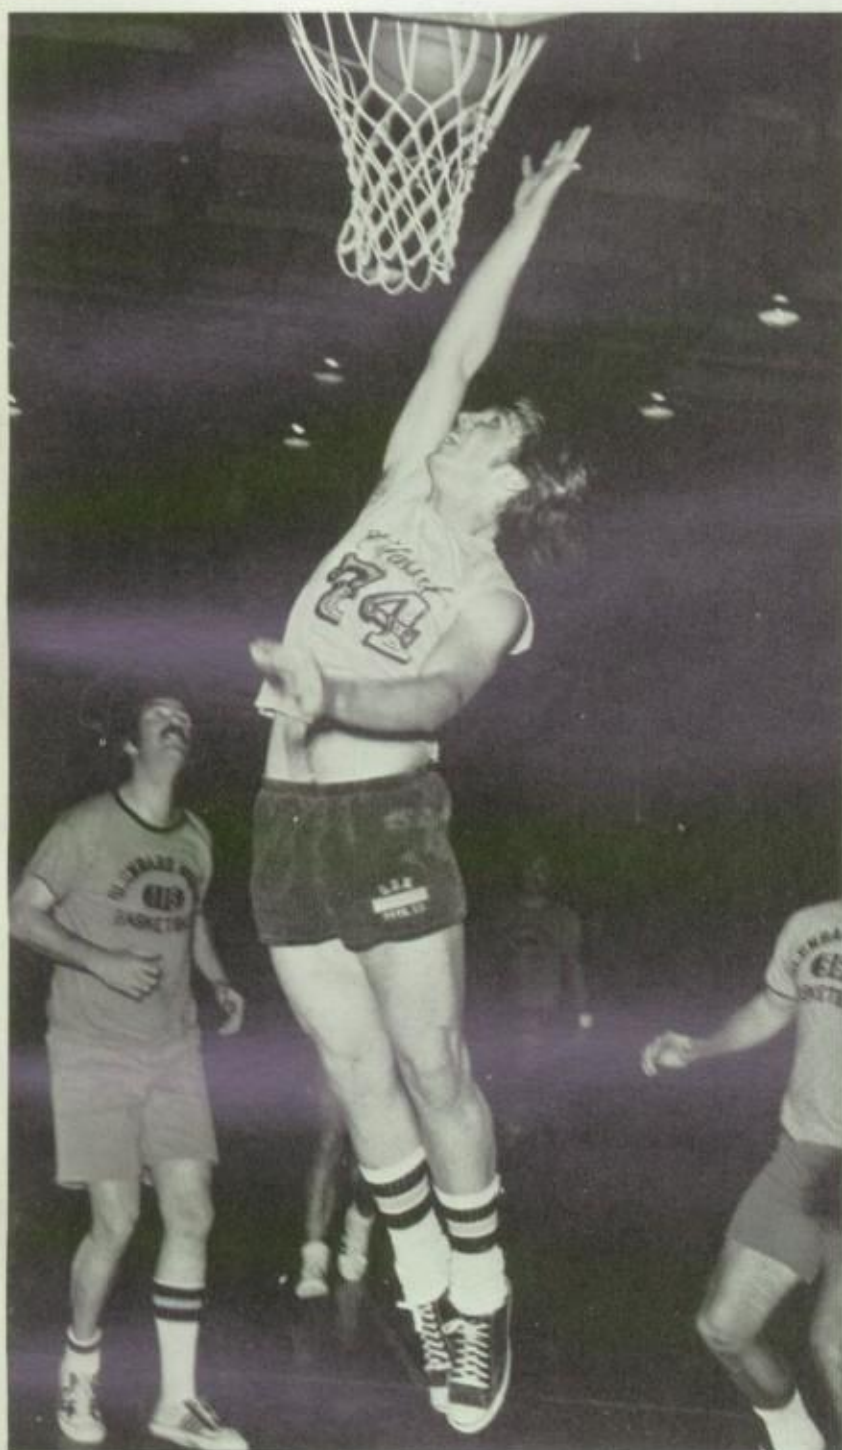

Eugene (Andy Sandberg), after Ben's death, pleaded for Ben's well being. Below Luke Gant (Bert Braud) is greeted by his mother. At the bottom the entire cast assembles in front of Dixieland.

look homeward, angel

faculty vs. g club basketball game

The teachers and students scrambled and fought for the ball. The teachers won by a landslide, not by cheating, but amazingly enough by skill alone.

donkey basketball

GN also had a Donkey Basketball Game which was a lot of fun for everyone. Even Mrs. Weaver, whose donkey had to take a time-out, waited patiently.

choral groups

The different choral groups gave several interesting and diversified programs throughout the year. Songs ranged from heavy classical to recent tunes of today. Cheryl Wilson, Opp. page, did a difficult solo.

AN ITALIAN STRAW HAT

The play starts with some of the cast making-up on stage. A tableau is done just before beginning. Center Anais (Ronda Hible) and Emile (Ray Rodriguez) conflict with Fadinard (Ken Fox) Above when his horse eats Anais' hat. She can't go home without it because of her jealous husband. Fadinard runs to the nearest hat shop and who should own it but his old mistress Clara (Gia Interlandi). Right.

The bride's family arrives with Helene (Tammy Bird-sall) complaining of a pin in her back, while her cousin Bobin (Roger Uhler), her father Nonancourt (Mike Leonard), and her husband look on. Upper left Fadinard goes to the Baroness de Champigny (Barb Bacon) to ask for her Italian straw hat. Above Her cousin Achille (Bill Nicholson) entertains Fadinard with a pastoral air. Left.

Uncle Vezinet (Rob Douglas) is mistaken for Fadinard by Bauperthuis (Tony Bitunjak). Upper right Nonancourt's speech causes the wedding party to cry. Center Fadinard is mistaken for a singer and decides to play along in the hopes of getting the hat. Right.

The wedding party follows Fadinard to the Baroness' and joins the party which results in chaos. Top At Fadinard's house an Italian Straw Hat is found. Middle left, brides maids (Martha Scully and Cerly Kotecki) pose with the newlyweds and they all live happily ever after "?"

concert band

Upper left, Rose Combs and Michele Ennis present Mr. Schmoe with a present from the seniors. Upper right, Sandy Beyer plays the tympanies. Left, Cathy Pfluger inspects her keychain, a gift given to all seniors. Above, an almost concert band member sits despondently on the sidewalk, unable to play in the concert because she missed a rehearsal.

This year's Carnival featured a jello sucking contest, Upper left, Dave Pastore to throw a sponge full of whip cream at, Upper right, a chance to add to your goldfish collection, Above, and of course some cotton candy to tame and eat, Right. The Carnival gives all the school organizations an opportunity to raise money.

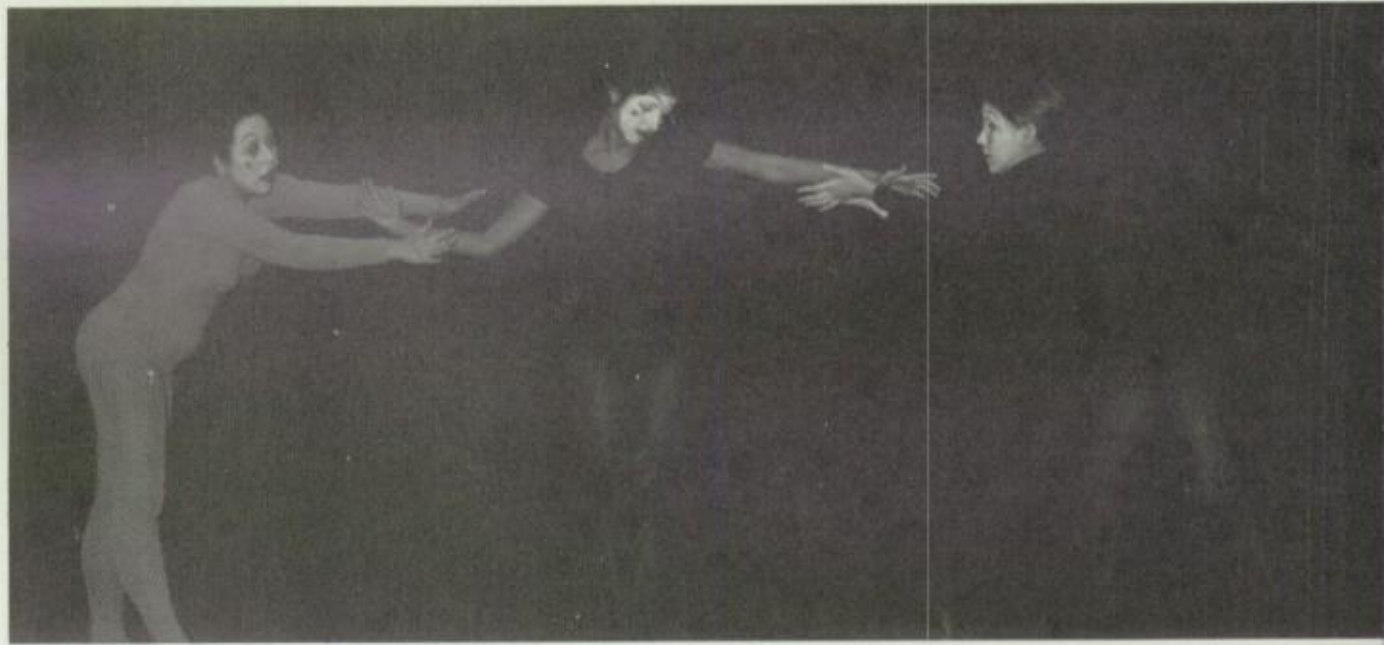

The highlight of the Carnival was the Dance Marathon. While the band played all fast numbers, couples danced non stop, while judges eliminated dancers. When the winners finally were announced fleet foot Gia Interlandi and twinkle toes Tammy Birdsall, each received $25 each.

yours and mime

Play Production II class presented this play about the Brontes. Emily, (Ronda Hible) Anne, (Elaine Grinnip) and Charlotte, (Cindy Barnes) often walked together, Branwell, (John Ferry) and friend Christopher (Keith Dorwick) would drink too much at the local tavern, which infuriated his father (Mike Leonard), Upper right. Branwell depended on Emily for help and understanding, Middle left. The maids, Martha (Cheryl Wilson) and Tabby (Laura Gardner) always quarreled., Middle right. Emily saw Branwell through his last illness, Left.

moor born

At the top the cast and crew after the show. From left to right, Row 1: Roger Uhler. Row 2: Gia Interlandi, Ronda Hible, (director), Lynn Ables, Tony Bitunjak, Rob Douglas, Drew Taylor. Row 3: Tammy Birdsall, Heidi Alvarado, Jackie Sennott, and Cheryl Wilson. Sketches included a knife thrower who missed, Right, A group trying to make God in their own image, Middle, and a fishing sketch for which Tammy held the sign, Upper left.

we will never pass this way again

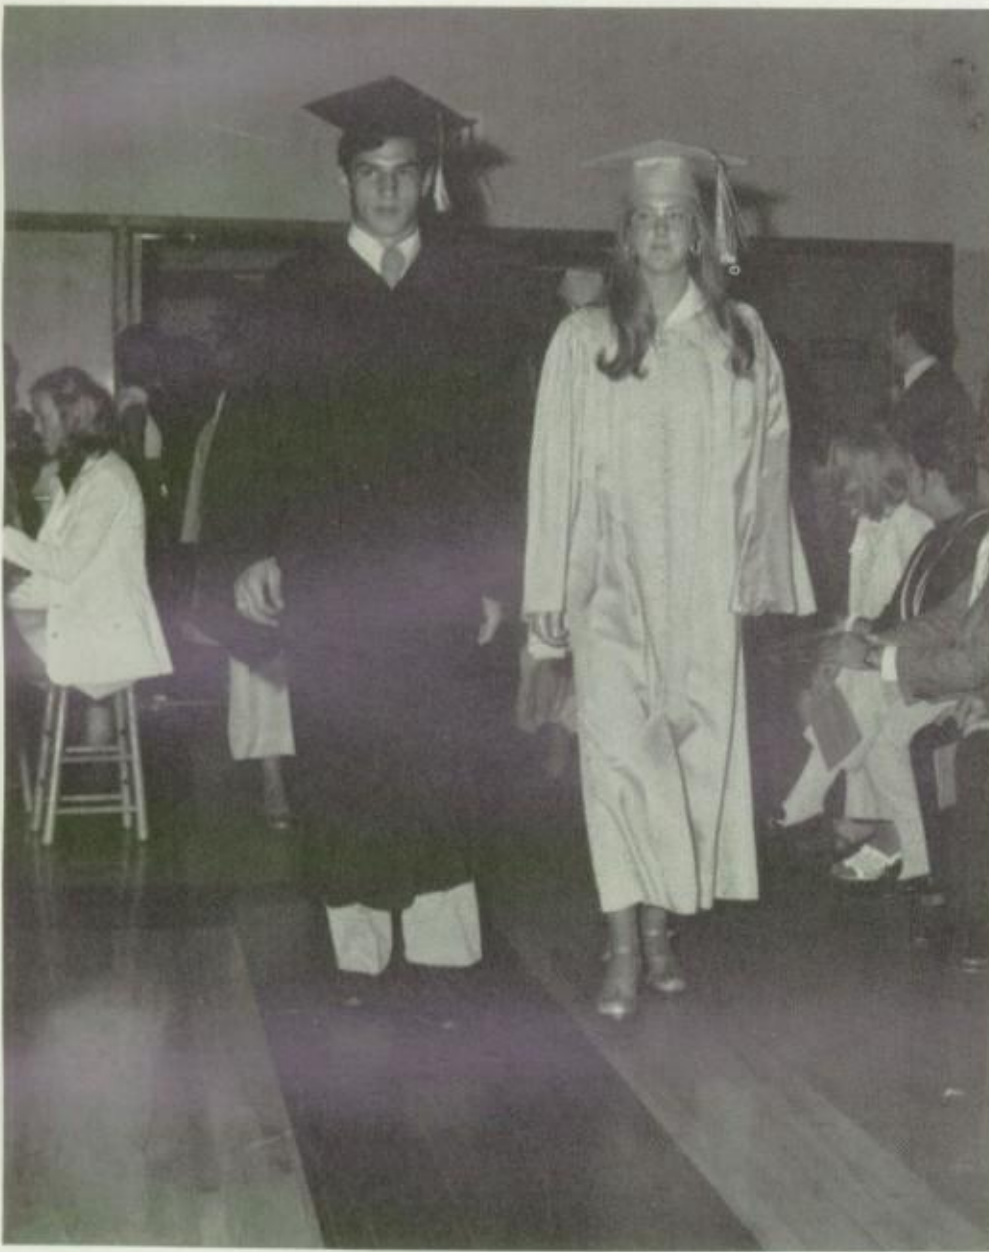

Prom Night — Girls in their beautiful dresses danced and socialized with the GN crowd at the Itasca Holiday Inn. The King and Queen, Rick Gonzales and Karen La Barre posed for a picture after being crowned, Opposite page upper left.

commencement 1974

As seniors marched in the band played the traditional processional, "Pomp and Circumstance", Above. Lon Yeary, the class president, led the Pledge of Allegiance and the Welcome, Upper right. Lourdes Rodriguez presented the class gift to Marvin L. Mitchell of the Board of Education, Right. As diplomas were received graduates realized that four years of high school were at an end. Thoughts of hard work, frustration, success, friends, good times, and sadness because it was all to be left behind, filled the gym. Afterwards, graduates got together with friends and relatives for pictures. Jorge Dusio checked with Mr. Kotecki to make sure his pictures turned out, Opposite page lower right.

the unsinkable molly brown

Molly, (Ronda Hible) is temporarily subdued by her brothers, (Rob Bacon), Bill Nicholson), and (Ray Rodriguez), while Father Flynn and her father (Carl Kotecki) watch, Upper right. The lovely Leadville Ladies, Middle right. In the saloon the miners decide they like Molly, Lower right. Molly meets Johnny "Leadville" Brown and marries him, when he gives her a cabin and a big brass bed Above.

Molly travels to Europe and meets Prince DeLong (Steve Hopeman) and Princess DeLong (Karen Pedersen), Upper left, she also meets Mrs. McGlone (Barb Bacon), an old enemy of hers, Upper right. Entertainment is provided by dancers, Middle. On her way back from Europe, Molly and other passengers have to resort to a lifeboat and Molly keeps the passengers from panicking, Left.

1973 prom

The 1973 Prom held at Chateau Louise was a "Stairway to Heaven." The King and Queen, Kim Klockenga and Peggy Gebka, Above. Chris Jirsa looked at her program, while Jeff Malmberg read over her shoulder, Right.

archery — conference champs

Congratulations to GN's sharp-eyed shooters, Tri County Champions. The girls were undefeated for five straight seasons, but alas! GN's very first archery loss was suffered this year to the bows of Arlington.

WHAT LEGS! Sandy Lenz, a senior leader, attempts a kickball home run as her fellow teammates watch on. Sandy Lenz was one of the first senior leaders at Glenbard North, as sophomore girls were given the opportunity of going into the leaders program. As juniors, all aspects of physical education is learned, so that as seniors they are capable of helping fellow students. So again, the class of "74" leads the way with a new program at Glenbard North High School.

The class of '76 proved they have spirit. Class Competition seemed to be their most successful accomplishment. Many people were surprised at how loud the sophomores could cheer in spite of their trying experiences in classes such as Speech and Driver Education.

IN MEMORY

those are memories gone forever,
locked away in our souls and minds,
never to be again.

From when
to a really kid
out of site hand
who I am fond of.
We had really great & best times together and music together.
I hope that every thing works out between both of us because I really think your for me and it is the one for me and much to say but I love a lot and good luck in the future with your life
to come.

I love ya
After (Boo-Boo)

I Love ya
for every minute I live and as long
as you live!

P.S. Call

Brouwer,
I have really enjoyed
you in my class.
I know I won't see you
after graduation.
So best of luck to you!

Brouwer,

It's going to be a crazy year having you in my class. I can tell already. I mean some of all the ~~are~~ really tremendous things. Well I hope you graduate from this wonderful school this year.
